DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sugiyama et al., U.S. Patent No. 6,166,125 (hereinafter "Sugiyama"). Sugiyama teaches a graded-refractive-index optical plastic material comprising a fluorine-containing polymer and at least one fluorine containing polycyclic compound. See Sugiyama, Abstract; col. 2, line 37 through col. 3, line 36; col. 5, lines 15-25. Sugiyama further teaches a polymerizable composition for producing an optical member comprising a polymerizable monomer, an initiator and a compound of present formula (1a). See Sugiyama, Example 2. Sugiyama further teaches the optical fiber by drawing an optical member. See Sugiyama, Examples 14-17.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

5. Claims 11-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sugiyama in combination with Komoriya et al., U.S. Patent No. 7,060,771 (hereinafter "Komoriya"). Sugiyama does not teach formula (1b). Komoriya teaches in analogous the a vinyl trifluoromethylacrylate monomer. See Komoriya,

Abstract; col. 10. In recently decided KSR Int'l Co. v. Teleflex, Inc., the Supreme Court unanimously stated "the combination of familiar elements according to known methods is likely to be obvious when it does no more than yield predictable result." In view of Komoriya, one having an ordinary skill in the art would be motivated to modify Sugiyama by using an vinyl trifluoromethylacrylate monomer because both references are directed at polymer compositions containing material for plastic optical fibers and optical wavelengths. Such modification would be obvious because one would expect that the use of fluoro containing monomers as taught by Sugiyama would be similarly useful and applicable to the fluoro-polymers taught in Komoriya.
